A Visit to the Library

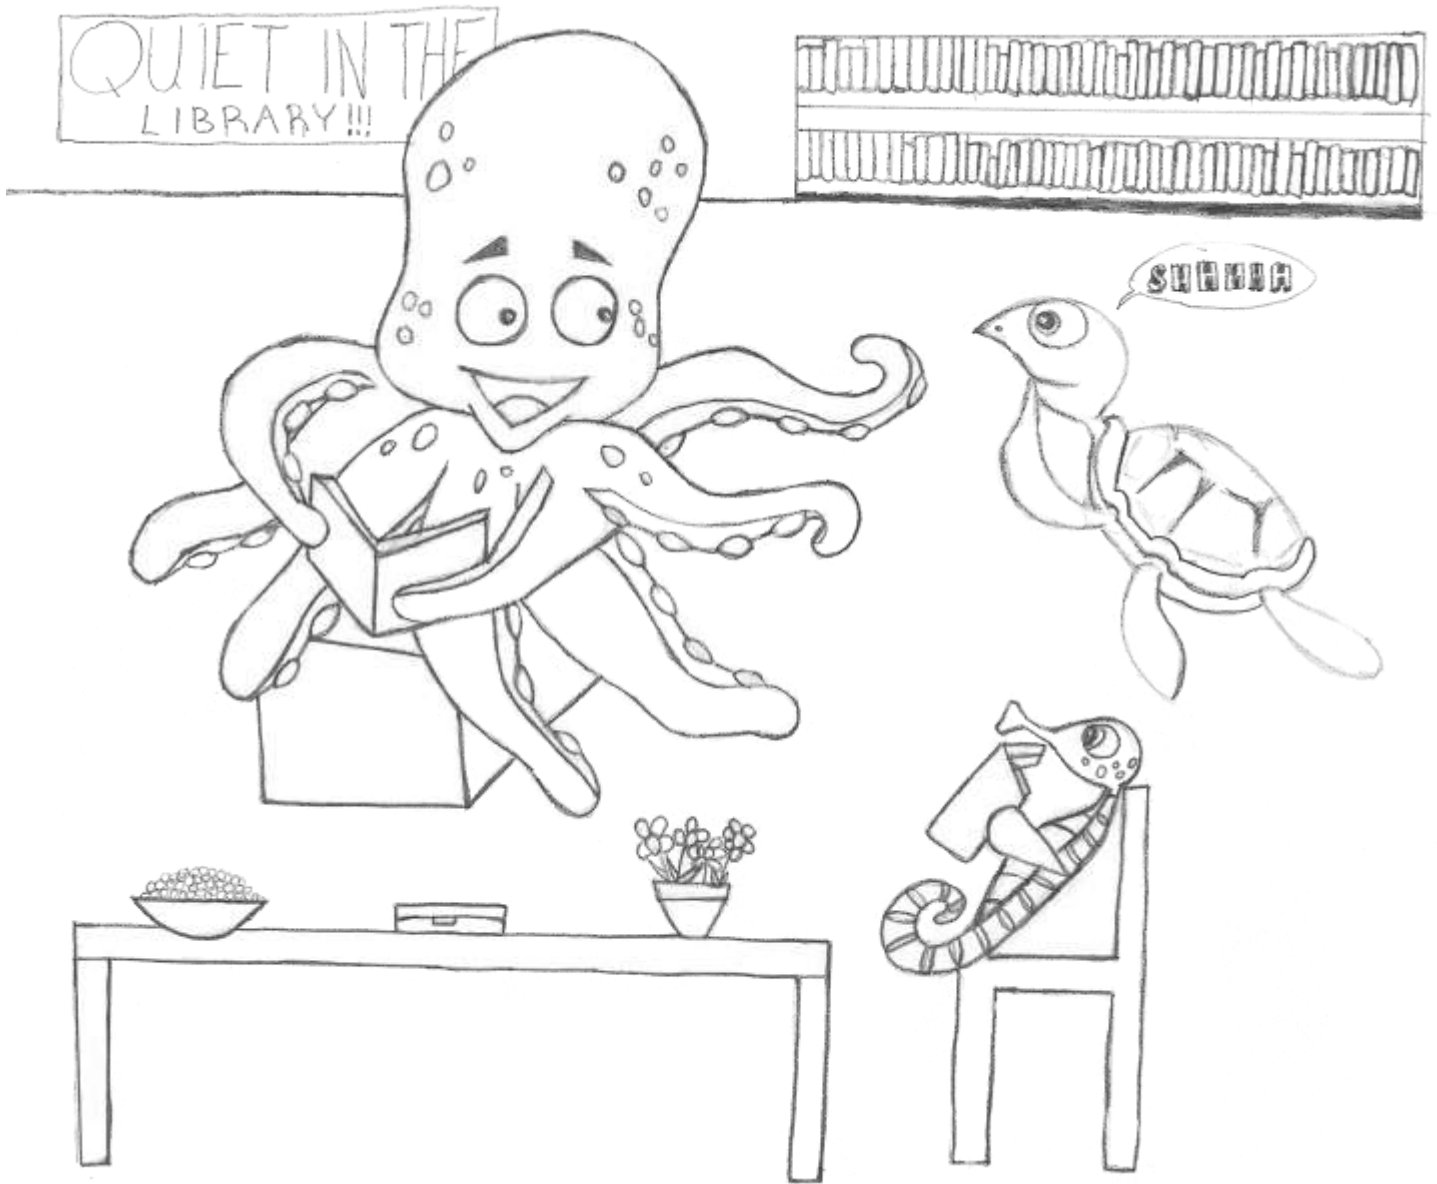

By Jaylen Callins

Let's go visit the library!

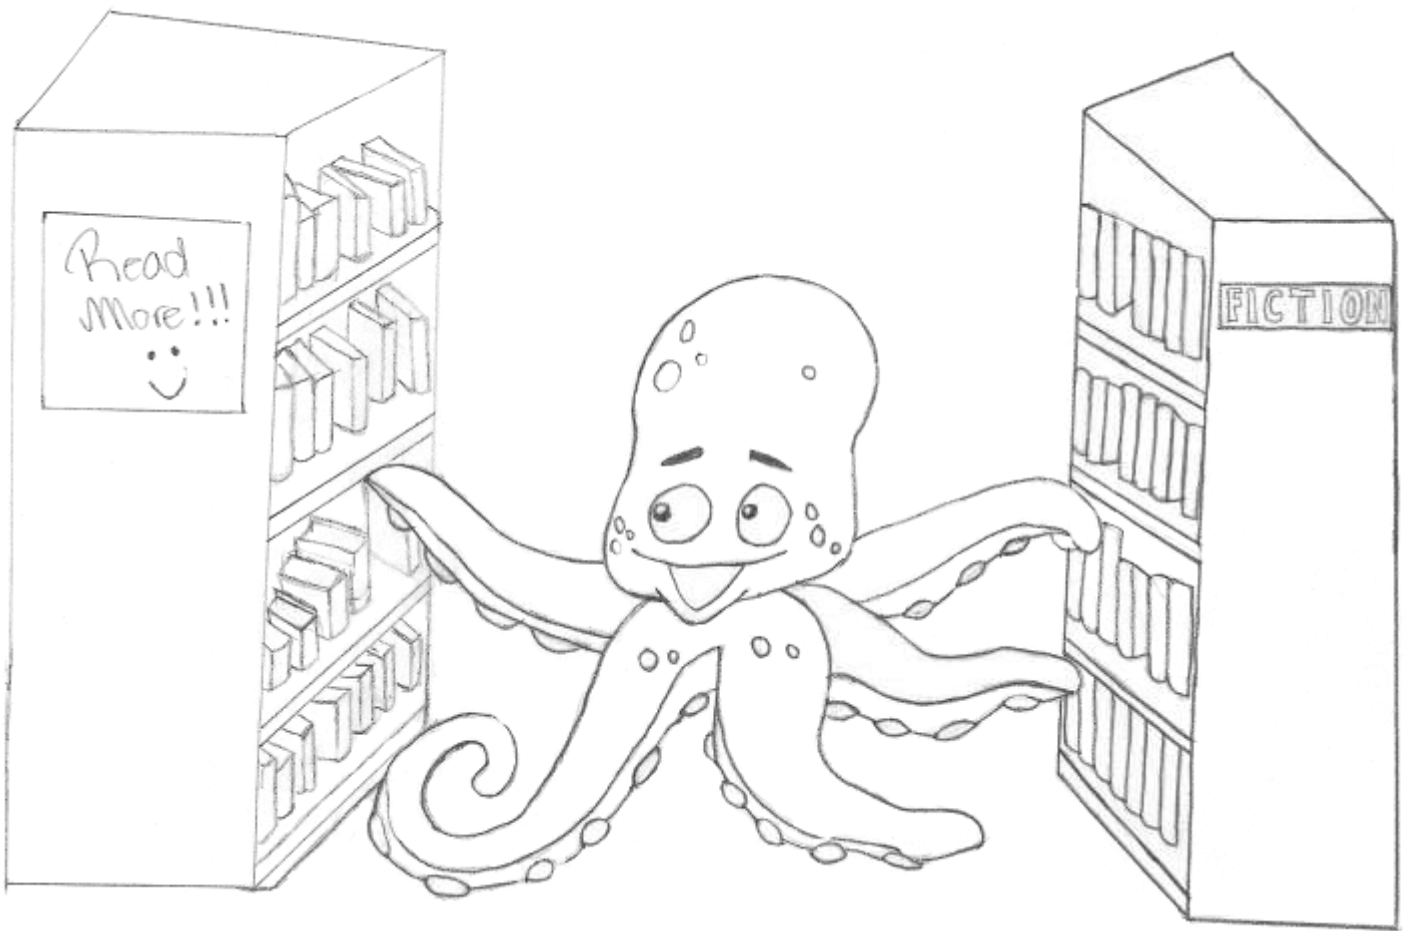

Wow! We are so excited!

Let's remember to use our inside voices during our visit today.

The library is a great place to do homework.

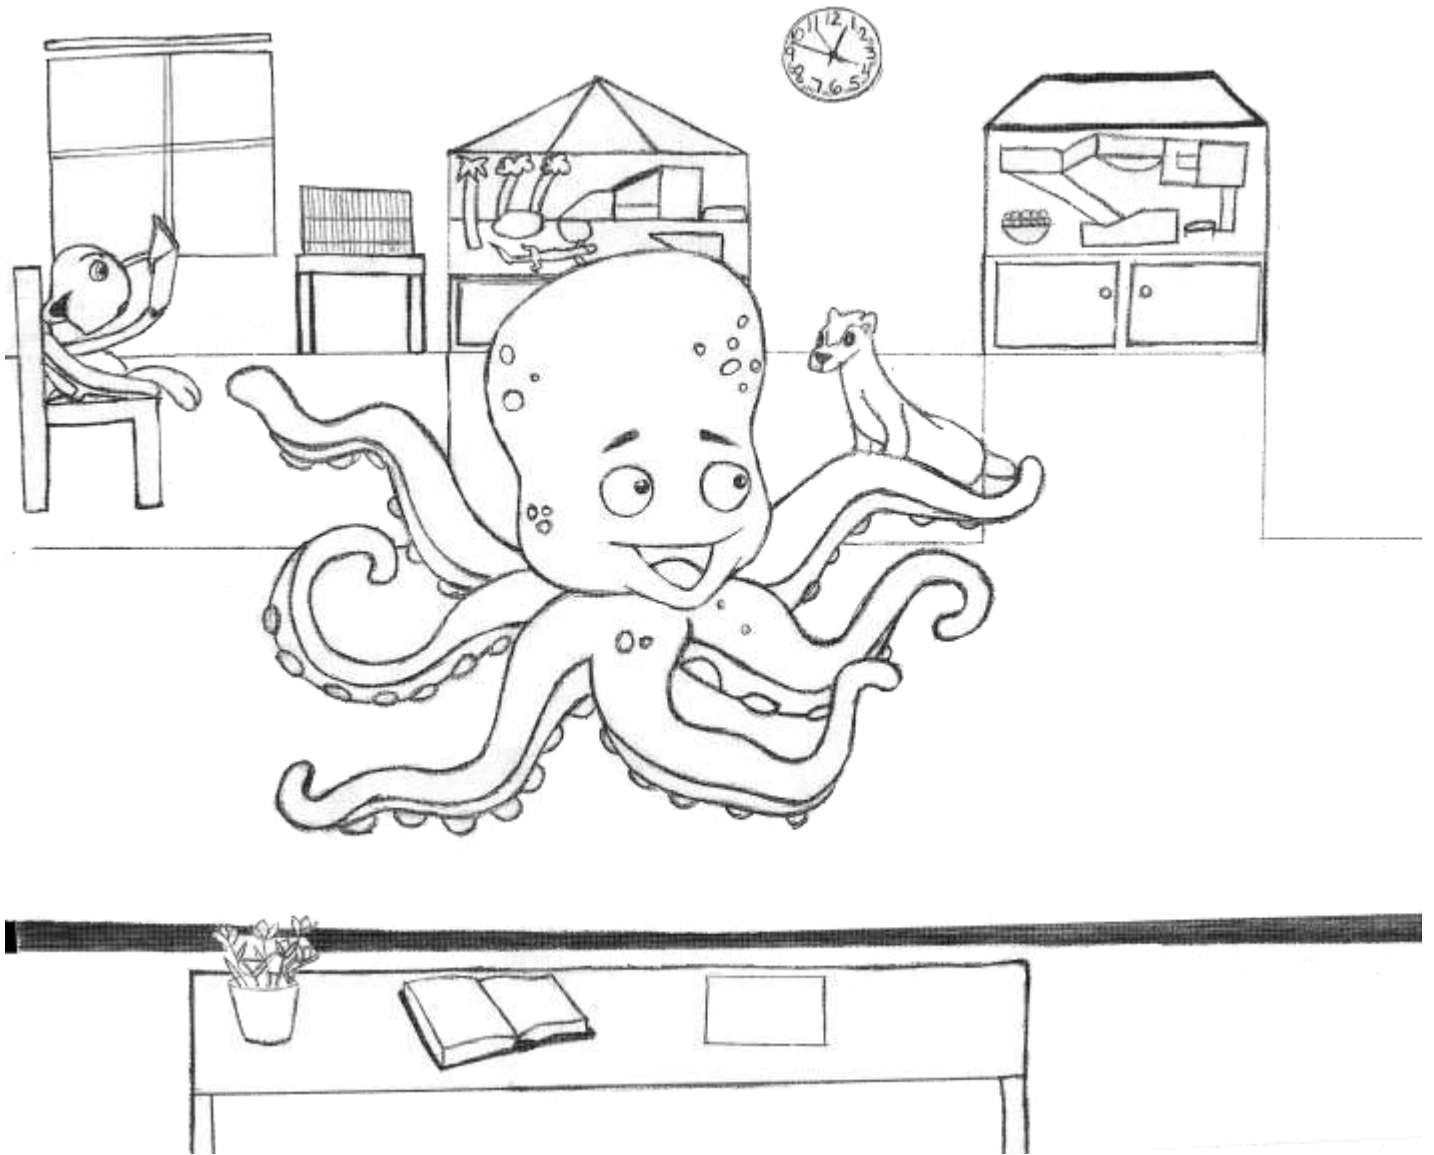

You can find all sorts of books in the library! What is your favorite book?

Write the title of your favorite book on the line above.

You can check out free music and movies! You can download music from your favorite artists.

Did you know the library is home to fun animal friends?

We can visit them while we are at the library.

If you need help or have a question,
there is always a librarian to help.
Librarians are your friends.

You can use computers and print copies at the library.

You can use your library card
to check out books, CDs, movies,
and other things.
Just remember to return them on time.

You can select from so many books, DVDs,
magazines, and audiobooks.

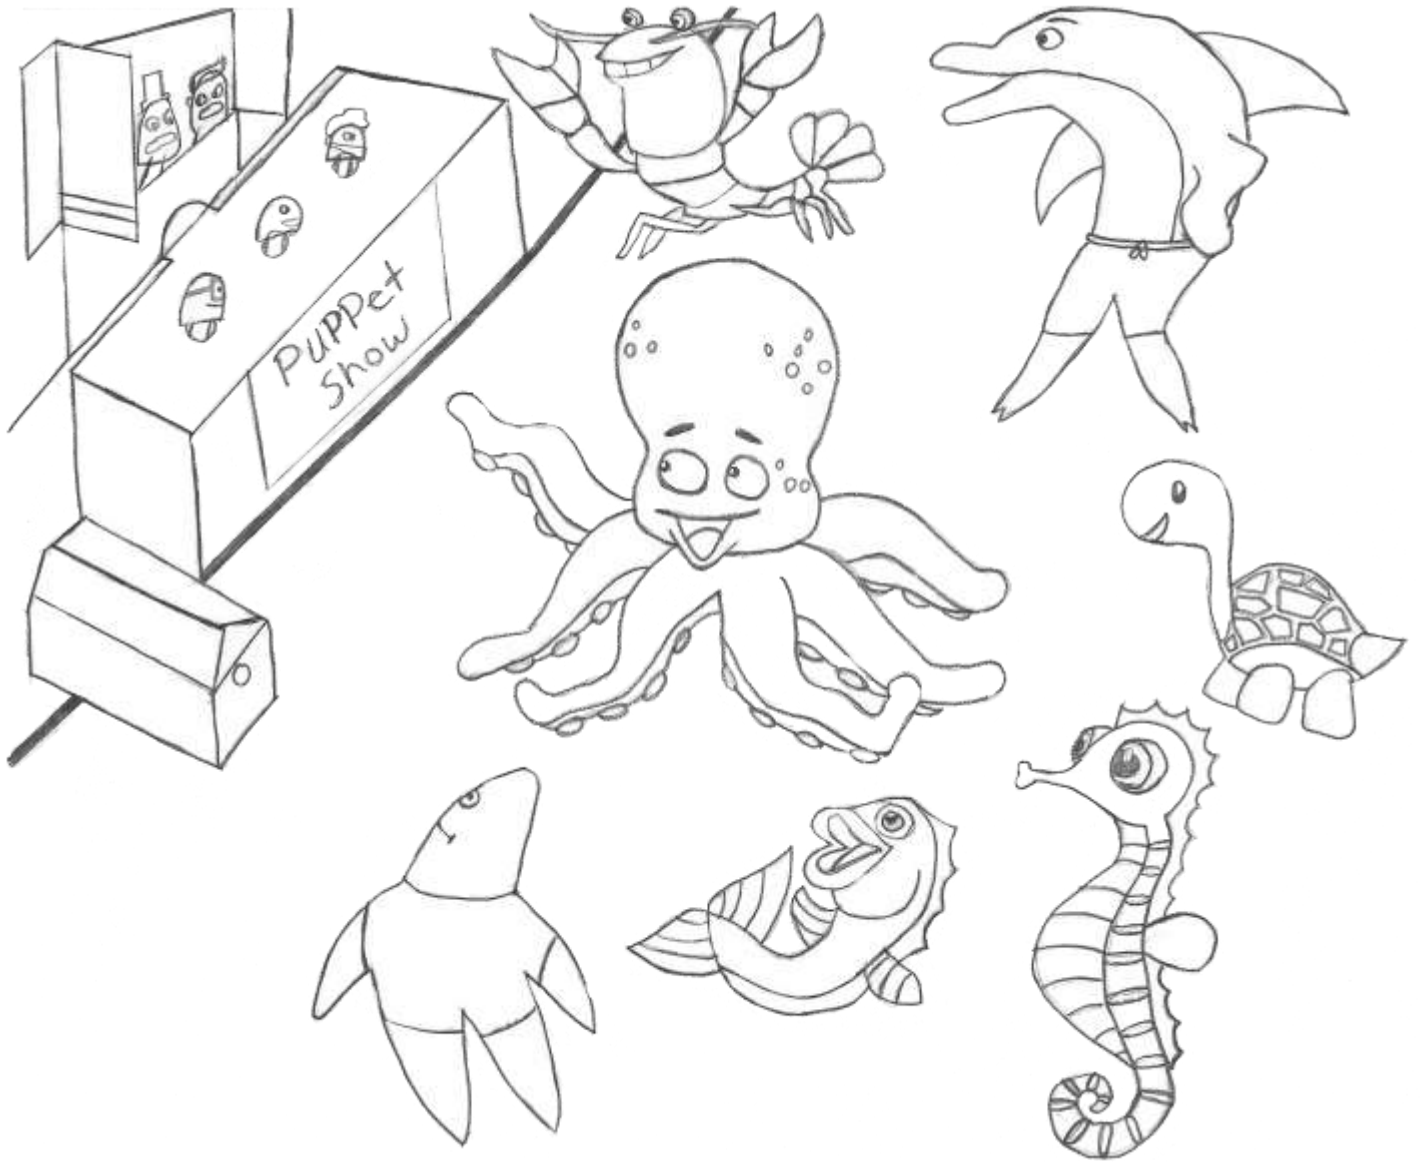

You can play games at your library.
How many jelly beans do you see?

... And the winner is _____ !

Write your name on the line above.

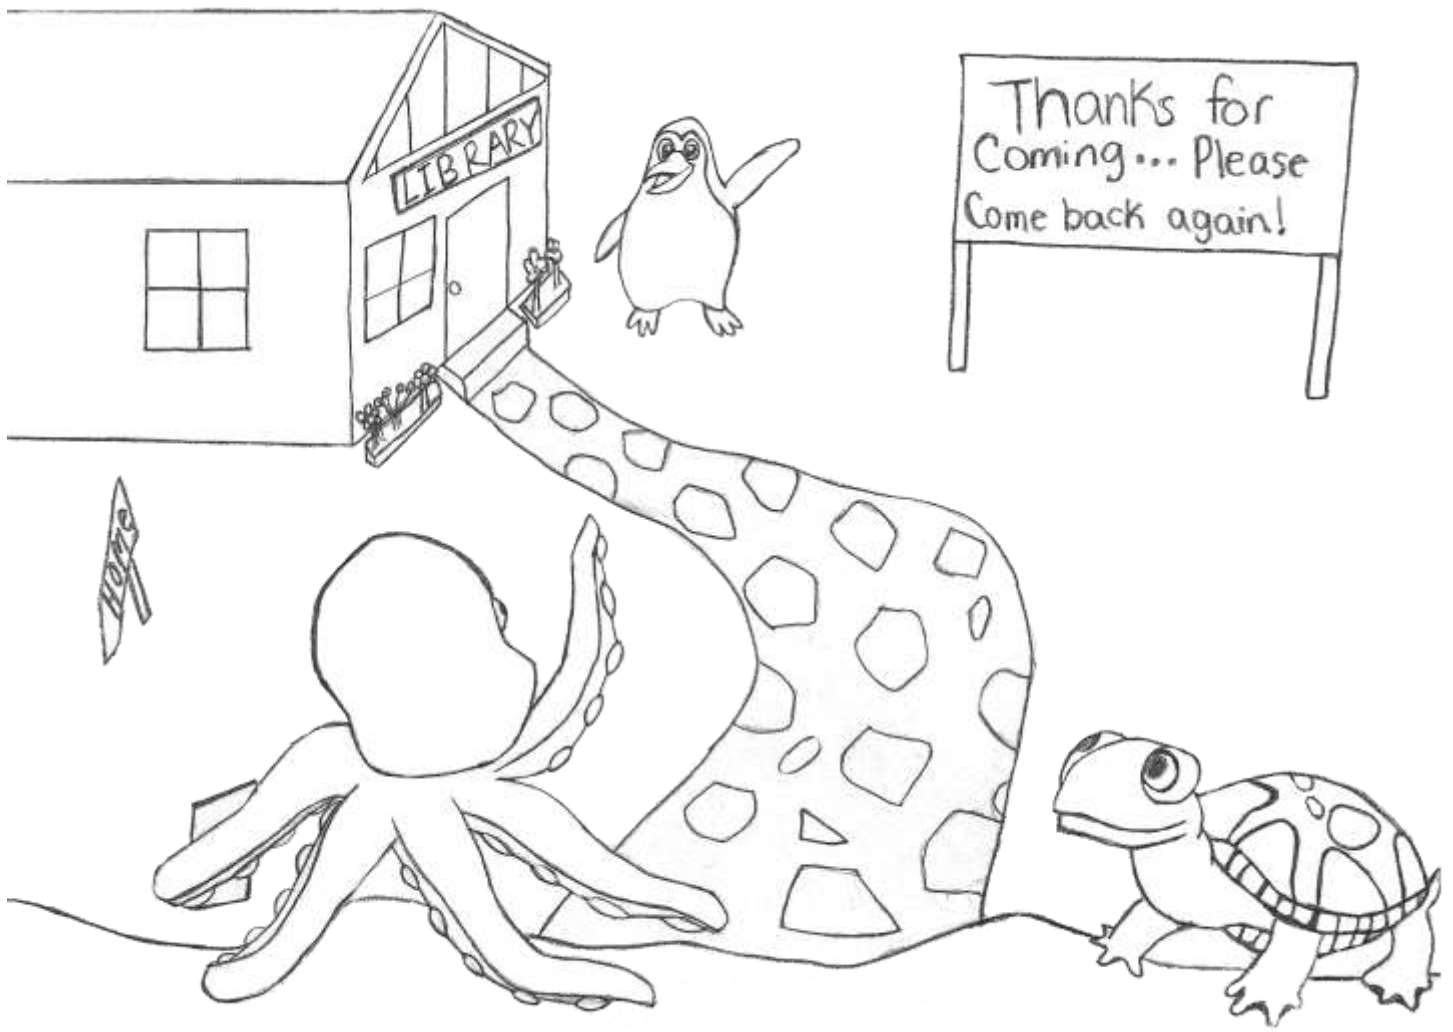

Look! It's a puppet show! The library has many great and fun programs.

You can go to storytime programs at the library.

Sometimes, they have arts and crafts.

That was a great visit to the library!
Good-bye!
Be sure to thank your friendly librarians.

Get a library card today!
It packs power!

Circle the words you learned at the library today!

A Jaylen Callins Creation

The staff of the Birmingham Public Library (BPL) system extends its sincerest thanks to Jaylen Callins for his creation of this activity book. Jaylen is 16 years old and attends Clay-Chalkville High School and The Jefferson County School of Visual Art—Shades Valley Technical Academies (dual-enrollment). He has won several art awards throughout the years and is currently part of Teen BMA (Birmingham Museum of Art). Jaylen has hundreds of volunteer hours recorded for his work on this project at the Central Library, for his work at the Springville Road Regional Branch Library where pieces of his art have been displayed, and at several other organizations throughout Jefferson County.

The drawing above is Jaylen's self-portrait.

All artwork submitted for this activity book are original creations drawn by Jaylen Callins. They are reprinted here with the permission of Jaylen Callins and Rachel Allen.
